Center for German & European Studies
SPRING 2015 LECTURE SERIES

All Lectures are 12 Noon, 201 Moses Hall, UC Berkeley

February 5
What was ’1968’? The Year in West Germany in Global Perspective
Timothy Scott Brown
Professor of History, Northeastern University

March 2
From the Watergate Scandal to the Compliance Revolution: Fighting Corruption in the US and Germany, 1972-2012
Hartmut Berghoff
Director, German Historical Institute
Washington, DC

March 9
Arming Your Enemy: Germany’s Secret Dealings with Russia in the 1920s
Zachary Shore
Associate Professor of History, Naval Postgraduate School; Senior Fellow at the Institute of European Studies, UC Berkeley

April 2
Explaining the Anti-Immigrant Movement in Dresden (and Beyond)
Professor Dr. Jost Halfmann
Institut für Soziologie, Technische Universität Dresden

April 15
Germany and European Security: What Lies Ahead?
Johanna Bussem
Director for North America, OECD, the EU, and the United Nations, Rosa Luxemburg Foundation

This lecture series is made possible through the generous support of Norma Feldman

A light lunch will be served at all lectures